This website uses cookies. By using this website, you agree to our Cookies Policy and you approve of the terms stated in our Cookies Policy.

About cookies:

As is common practice with almost all professional websites, this site also uses cookies, which are small files (pieces of data) sent by web servers to web browsers that are downloaded to users' computers and serve to improve their experience. Not storing cookies may downgrade or 'break' certain elements of this websites' functionality.

For general information on cookies, please visit: www.aboutcookies.org.

This page describes which information is gathered, how it is used and why it is sometimes necessary to store cookies.

The cookies we use:

We use cookies if you create an account with us so that the management of the sign up or the registration process and general administration can be managed. These cookies will usually be deleted when you log out though. However, in some cases, they may remain afterwards to retain your site preferences while you are logged out.

Our site offers newsletters or email subscription services and cookies may be used to determine whether you are already registered and whether certain notifications should be shown that may only be valid to subscribers or to non-subscribers.

From time to time, we offer user surveys and questionnaires to provide you with interesting insights and helpful tools or we wish to understand our user base more accurately. These surveys may use cookies to remember who has already taken part in a survey or to provide you with accurate results after you switch pages.

When you submit data, for example, on the contact pages or on the comment forms, cookies may be set to remember your user details for future correspondence

In order to provide you with great experiences while on this site, we use functional cookies to set your preferences on how this site should function when you use it. In order to remember your preferences, we need to use cookies so that this information can be recalled whenever you interact with a page affected by your preferences.

Cookies on our website:

We use session cookies and permanent cookies. Session cookies are deleted from your computer once your browser is closed, whereas permanent cookies remain stored on users' computers until deleted or until an expiry date has been reached. The type of cookies we use are necessary, namely: functional cookies, performance cookies, and targeting cookies.

The list below states the cookies we use, the duration of these cookies and their purpose.

Third party cookies:

When using our website, you may also have cookies set by third parties. Third party cookies are used to track and measure the usage of our site. We also use different social media buttons and plugins that allow you to connect to your social network in various ways. For these to work on social media platforms which include: LinkedIn, Twitter, Slack, Facebook, Google+, etc. we set cookies on our site that may enhance your profile on other sites or will contribute to the data they hold for the specific purposes outlined in their respective privacy policies.

We also use Google Analytics to analyse the use of our website. By means of cookies stored on users' computers, Google Analytics generates statistics and other information concerning the use of our website. Information that is generated relating to our website is used to create reports about the use of our website. These cookies may track things such as how long you spent on our site and the pages you visited, which, subsequently, helps us to continue producing engaging content. Google will store and use this information. You can learn more about Google's privacy policy here: <http://www.google.com/privacypolicy.html>

Please see the official Google Analytics page for more information on Google Analytics cookies.

From time to time, we test new features and make subtle changes to the way our site is delivered. When new features are being tested, cookies may be used to ensure that your experience is consistent while on our website, whilst also ensuring that we understand which optimisations our users appreciate the most.

Because we sell services, it is important for us to know the statistics of how many visitors to our site actually made a purchase and this kind of data is subsequently tracked by cookies. This is important for you, too, because it means that we can make accurate business predictions that allow us to monitor our advertising and product costs to ensure the best possible prices.

By using our site, you agree that we may use cookies for the reasons stated above.

More information:

This has hopefully clarified any questions you may have had. However, if you require more information concerning our Cookies Policy, please feel free to contact us via email: support@encorestoken.uk
